---From the lives, runs capita, October 7, 1859. SPALDENG'S PROPERTO GEOR.-- TO have a favorit piece of china chipped or broken, a pet book with its nding torn, a nice piece of formiture fractured, is a terrible and temper-destroying nuisance. Not without zemedy, as we can testify. Mr. pauling, who advertises his Prepared Give in "The Press" to-day, sent us some of it yesterday. We devoted two hours to its practical application-result, two carved chairs completely restores, many odd and ends of china and glass made lit for use a tattered may made as good as new, several deguerreotype cases renovated, and an old folio edition of Herodotus and Homer printed in the year 1500, whose antique boards (interaily boards) were split, made strong enough to last for another century or two. We might have mended any quantity of children's broken toys, but caved in after an hour at the worst of them. This Prepared Gluo, which is a liquid about as thick as glue, and applied by a brush which accommunies each bottle, is so indispensable in a house that we now wonder how we could have gone
